

IPFC celebrated their 80th anniversary on August 13, 2024, with the theme of “Cheers to 80 Years”.

The gathering was held at the Holiday Inn in Johnstown, NY and had a great turnout.

We celebrated the retired members of IPFC (formally known as Insurance Women of Fulton County). Those retirees attending were Judy Feldman, Mary Chase, Toni Hollenbeck, Cathy Levee and Goldie Anderson – all these ladies looked great!!! They shared how they got into the insurance industry, and they certainly were some fun stories.

We were also happy to host Fran Scott FNYIP President and her daughter Carolyn who came from Orange County as well Jeanne Prater and Pat Crawford, from Insurance Professionals of Albany, which recently disbanded.

We were very pleased to also have Tim Munn from The Hoy Agency along with Julie Glover from The Glover Agency as guests.

Special thanks to Trudi Cromling IPFC President, Brenda Wandel and Rocky Snell for putting together a great gathering!

Respectfully Submitted,
Donna Albanese
Region II Director
